foreword . . .

Here is your book. Long hours have been spent to make it a memorial that you will treasure all your life. Through these pages we have tried to show you the life of Holstein Public School.

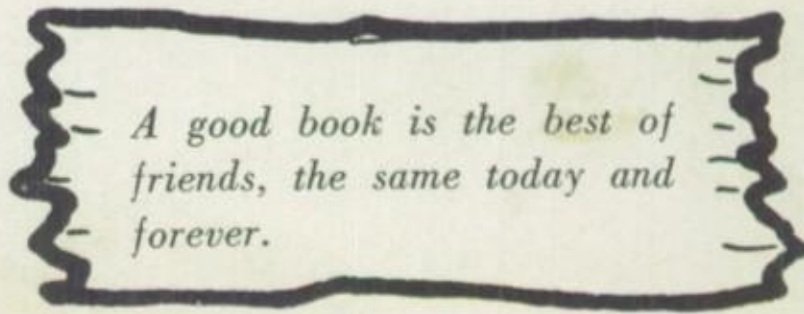

Not only have we tried to show you the extracurricular activities, such as dances, sports, and organizations, but also we have attempted to show you the curricular side as well, through actual classroom pictures.

We would like to express our sincere appreciation to all persons who, in some way, helped to make this one of the most outstanding years in the history of our school.

To our graduating seniors, we extend our best wishes and hope the work they have done here will prove to be of value as they take their next step.

We hope you enjoy the "MOO" as much as we enjoyed publishing it. It was ours for almost a year. Now it belongs to you.

dedication . . .

. . . to a man who has devoted eleven years of his life to service in Holstein High School . . . in addition to being the science and mathematics instructor and a good friend of all the students, Mr. Gerber has been especially close to us . . . he has served as our class sponsor for three years and willingly helped us in all the ventures we undertook . . . later, as we recall our years in Holstein High, we shall all share fond memories of him, either in guidance or fellowship . . .

ADMINISTRATION

MR. M. F. CHRISTIE
Superintendent of Public Schools

Education is the great common denominator of human understanding.

Secretary, Mrs. Gladys Raabe; Board Members, Jesse Leonard, Harold Conover, Ivan Blackmer, Superintendent "Duke" Christie, Ray Bagenstos, William Walker; Treasurer, Mildred Jackes.

Our most sincere gratitude to these men and women who have unselfishly devoted their time to make this a better community in which to live and a better school for the community. With their varied business and professions they are representative of our community life. Because of the interest of these individuals, our school will continue to benefit.

Education has for its object the formation of character.

Hats off to these 15 VIP.
Without them our school could not operate.

These eight bus drivers are responsible for transporting some 316 pupils to and from school each day, rain or snow.

Untiring patience is an outstanding characteristic in our three janitors who begin their work in the small hours of the morning and wind it up after a late ball game in the evening.

Noon each day finds everyone heading for the hot lunchroom where about 300 meals are served.

Again our hearty congratulations to these loyal people for their efficiency.

EACH TYPICAL school day calls upon the time and effort of the above group. This library staff under the direction of Miss Stoner is in charge of some 2800 books, which they shelve, arrange, dust, mend, charge out, check in, collect the overdues on, and keep in order at all times. Besides these fiction and reference books, our library has available to each student seven sets of encyclopedias, and many other reference volumes. Also on our shelves are found such prominent magazines as LIFE, LOOK, READER'S DIGEST, AMERICAN, THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC, POPULAR MECHANICS, POPULAR SCIENCE, and many others.

No day passes without someone asking to be directed to a certain section of the library, a particular reference book, or a good story. These librarians are there to "lend a helping hand."

...speeches...listen!

THIS YEAR thirteen students tried their talents in speech work. It was the largest number to participate so far in any one contest from Holstein High School. Six divisions were represented in the preliminary contest at Quimby during the week of Feb. 14.

Those participating in the oratory division were Sally Blackmer giving "The Windowpane"; Barbara Irwin, "Must We Always Be A Lost Generation"; and Wayne Saxon, "The American Flag."

In the dramatic division Julie Leonard gave, "Daddy Doc"; and Mary McBride, "The Littlest Orphan" and the "Christ Child."

Bonnie Blackmer with "Alberta at the Beach" and Shirley Timmerman with "Beauty Contest" represented us in the humorous division.

In the interpretative reading division Jerri Jean Cole read "The Ballad of Hell"; Janice Lohff, "The Death of the Hired Man"; and Lois Striepe, "Sioux Chief's Daughter."

Rodson Ellerbusch and Wayne Nelson entered radio speaking on the respective subjects: "Harmful Cigarettes" and "Narcotics."

Willis Buell participated in extemporaneous speaking.

EDITING STAFF—Marilyn Wagner, Jean Moser, Willis Buell, Kenneth Kruse, Jane Leonard, Lois Schroeder, Editors Lois Striepe and Janice Lohff.

The EDITING STAFF furnished the "story-like" background of our book. Their chief concern was to explain H.H.S. school life as it is, to those who have not had the opportunity to play the role of a busy student.

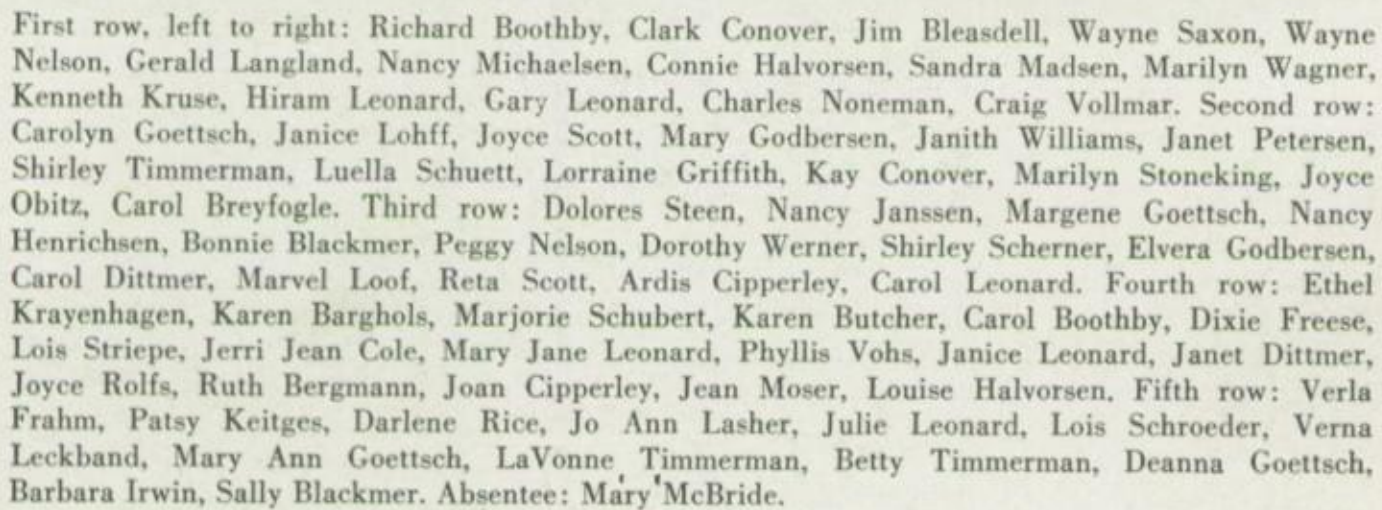

BUSINESS STAFF—Sitting: James Bleasdel, Roger Hass, Robert Will. Standing: Charles Noneman, James Clausen, Craig Vollmar, Gerald Breyfogle, Jerri Jean Cole, Dorothy Werner, Shirley Scherner, Nancy Janssen.

The BUSINESS STAFF sold ads and subscriptions to furnish that all-important financial background for our annual. Most of their ad work was completed before the holidays. Many long hours were spent contacting all of the business establishments in the orderly, efficient manner that had been set up by our staff managers.

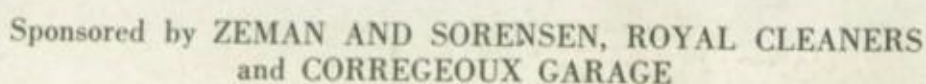

COPY STAFF—Donald Goettsch, Ardis Cipperley, LaVonne Schuett. Sitting: Hiram Leonard, Gary Leonard, Wendell Reineke, Verna Leckband, Elvera Godbersen, Wayne Nelson, Dixie Freese, Mary Ann Goettsch, Peggy Nelson. Standing: Jerry Langland, Joann Rolfs, Carol Dittmer, Joyce Obitz.

The COPY STAFF came through with accurate name listings for all the classes and organization pictures. The copy staff may be called the "working group." Credit is due them for their checking, typing, collecting, and picture work.

H.H.S. Pep Club has 74 active members, with Jerri Jean Cole, the President, Mary Jane Leonard, Vice President, Nancy Janssen, Secretary, and Charles Noman, Treasurer. Our year's activities include bang-up pep meetings, skits for home games, and the program for the Homecoming game. For the Homecoming parade the club worked hard to produce a beautiful float to carry the Royalty along the way. Later in the evening we helped in the colorful coronation ceremonies for the King and Queen.

CHEERLEADERS—Marilyn Wagner, Sandra Madsen, Nancy Michaelson, and Connie Halvorsen.

Pirates Take Maple Valley Loop Title to End Season

Attention -- Senior Boys

Applications are now available for the Navy's ninth competitive examination for its nation-wide NROTC college training program, according to a recent announcement by the Navy Department. The mental examination is scheduled for December 11, 1954, and is open to all high school seniors.

Juniors Play to Record Crowd

On Tuesday evening, November 9, I gathered up all of my little friends and we decided to go to the junior class play. We certainly had to search for a suitable place to sit because it looked as though the whole town had also decided to attend. Soon we were settled, and at 8:00 o'clock when the curtain was raised on

It was a jubilant gang of Holstein Pirates who came pouring into the locker room, laughing, shouting, and pounding backs, after knocking off Odebolt 25-0 to take the conference trophy. The continual rounds of back slaps and hand shakes went to everyone, especially to Wendell Reineke who scored the Pirates' first touchdown climaxing an 80 yard march; to Jerry Breyfogle who broke through and knocked down a Trojan punt, and to Don Fritz who fell on it in the end.

This year's HI-LARITY STAFF organized early in the fall under the guiding hand of Mrs. Christie. The expressed hope of the group was to edit a paper which would be of interest to everyone . . . After assignments were made, the business manager with the circulation and subscription groups sold ads and subscriptions to finance the paper . . . Hi-Larity went to press sixteen times this year. Special issues were printed at Christmas and for senior graduation. The editing staff found publishing the paper a full time job. Assignments had to be given and articles written to meet our deadlines. Typists' fingers flew on the days when that "unreadable" penciled copy had to be deciphered.

Seeing one's own article in headlines was a terrifying reward for the effort and time spent in composition.

PIRATE BAND

Noise! Noise! Ear-deafening activity. The Pirate Band tunes up. Then the slender baton is poised in the air for a second, and after the hush of a second—music—music created by a group of students who have worked and worked hard for long hours. They have practiced and marched and braved all kinds of weather to perform out on the football field for their school and team. They have practiced and practiced to please the home folks with the third annual POPS CONCERT. And then they have struggled and practiced some more to strut their stuff at the 1955 Music Contest.

No little credit goes to Band Conductor Harold Halvorsen who has helped make a fine Holstein High School Band.

AGAIN THIS YEAR we had a fine representation of the student body in the vocal music department. With three fine mixed groups, the girls' sextet, the boys' octet, the mixed quartet, and ten soloists warming up consistently, lots of harmony, skill, and entertainment came out of "this old house." Along with these small groups the two glee clubs and the mixed chorus tuned up regularly and with zesto. One of the music highlights of the year was the impressive Christmas program, featuring literally hundreds of singers in a fine program. After Christmas attention was centered on the preparations for the annual spring music contests.

The Black Pirates of Holstein High came through a very successful season of rockim-sockim football. Just as all teams do, we had our ups and downs, our triumphs and our failures. After the season ended, we wished we might have played three of the games over, but one cannot do that. After five wins against three losses, the final wind-up came with a smashing victory over Odebolt, giving us the Maple Valley Conference trophy, the greatest spoil of our victories.

1955 SEASON

The Pirate "B" squad rounded out their season with a 2-2 record.

The "B" squad got rolling in its first game with a 13-0 victory over Ida Grove. The following week Holstein lost to Kingsley on a wet field, 7-0.

In the third game Holstein's Little Pirates issued a 40-7 coup de grace to Aurelia, showing some fine football and know-how.

The last game was a desperate attempt to "lick the Bombers," but Kingsley set them back a second time, 27-6.

THE HOLSTEIN BLACK PIRATES came through the '54-'55 basketball season with a very creditable showing, racking up fifteen wins out of twenty-three games. Percentage-wise, they won 65% of their games and rolled up a total of 1373 points to their opponents' 1176. Battling their way through three games of the Maple Valley Tournament, the Pirates edged out Galva in the finals to collect the trophy. Pitted against Ida Grove in the first round of the state series, the team fought right down to the wire but lost out by eight points in the last quarter.

The PIRATETTES, consolation winners of last year, with all the poise and grace of true veterans came through the season with twenty-six straight wins to reach the state finals in Des Moines March 1-5. At Des Moines they won the first three rounds by knocking off district champions, Oakland, Eldora, and Royal, but lost to district champion, Goldfield, in an overtime. In the thirty games played during the 1954-55 season, the Holstein Runner-up Champions scored 2056 points while their opponents counted 1127. As a team they averaged less than twelve fouls per game. To the outstanding sextet of Iowa—Lois, Jerri Jean, Mary Jane, Nancy, Shirley, and Verna we extend congratulations for a wonderful record and a job well done.

Homecoming festivities began on the cool and windy night of October 14. A parade—consisting of the Saddle Club, Band, Class Floats, and the Royalty Float—paraded through town and terminated at the gym where the coronation program took place.

The seniors presented a take-off on Macbeth with the three witches and their magic cauldron; the juniors, "A Wedding of Holstein and Victory"; the sophomores, "The Holstein Machine"; and the freshmen, "Jarrin' Jack Jackson."

Then came the highlight and the most breathtaking event of the evening — the coronation. Thirty high school girls in blue robes carrying lighted candles formed an aisle for the royalty to the stage which was decorated as an autumn scene. A spotlight caught each couple as they proceeded up the aisle while the boys' glee club gave the final touch to the impressive occasion by singing "Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland."

The attending couples, Nancy Janssen and Kenny Kruse, and Jane Leonard and Jim Clausen were crowned by Miss Stoner. The girls were presented with mum corsages and the boys with boutonnieres. Then Queen Jerri and King Charles were crowned by Mr. Christie and took their respective places where Jerri received a bouquet of red roses and Charles a carnation boutonniere.

The climaxing event, held outside, was the burning of C'ville's effigy and the serving of cocoa and apples to the student body.

. . . freshies, this was your day . . .

On September 3, 1954, twenty-nine "green" Freshmen came slowly trudging to school. The boys wearing short skirts and huge bows on their backs and in their hair, represented "Little Iodine." The girls were attired in burlap sacks, and adorned with chicken feather beards, all looked the part of Pappy Yokum.

After the usual lipstick-cornstarch routine, they were marched to the city park. A frog race and fish eating stunt preceded an invitation to brush their neighbors' teeth with soap. Then blindfolded, they fed each other bread while the superior seniors squirted them, and about everybody else, with colored water.

In the evening the seniors were hosts at a dance for the entire high school. Although the freshmen at first were horrified with the thought of initiation, everyone had a wonderful time.

Freshman Coolies

. . . the big party . . .

On April 26, 1954, the weary, but happy juniors, and the gay, but sentimental seniors of Holstein High (along with the faculty members and members of the school board) were escorted into a make-believe world by eight freshman "coolies." The honored freshmen were the following: Pat Keitges, Larry Leinbaugh, Donny Fritz, Dick Boothby, Margene Goettsch, Patsy Keitges, Ruth Bergmann, and Sally Blackmer.

When escorted through the golden archways, we entered the picturesque "Pagoda Room" with its turquoise wall and black pagoda roof. Here were found the TV set, easy chairs, sofas, and swaying lanterns in an Oriental setting.

Beyond the "Pagoda Room" we entered a huge garden where lovely girls in bouffant formals and gentlemen in handsome suits whirled to the music of Bob Calame and his orchestra. In the distance flower-adorned cherry trees surrounded a smoking volcano. A stone wall encircled the garden with a bridge, a bird bath, parasols, and easy chairs down its length. Adorning the garden wall and other places were beautiful red poppies . . .

Time out

. . . goes on . . .

For refreshments, you were escorted to the "Terrace Room" where you were served with cakes and a very tasty punch. Tinkling wind chimes and the smell of incense and the light from the suspended Chinese lanterns carried out the theme of "Oriental Gardens."

Dancing continued from 9:00 until 12:00. Joanne Carstens and Martin Lohff were crowned Queen and King of the 1954 Prom.

To the seniors of 1955, it had been a very tiring matter but one that had been long-awaited; too soon it was over and to be forgotten for some but to those persons who took part in the decorating and the evening of "make believe," it would never be forgotten, but would remain in the memory as one of the highlights of High School days.

Mr. Kraii plays center

. . . grandad meets a pal . . .

On November 9, the Junior Class presented the three act comedy, GRANDAD MEETS A PAL. Grandfather, who was a spry old man, found himself in the midst of confusion after meeting up with Horatius Xenophon Hooley. By using Gramp's money, they tried to obtain a patent on Hooley's rat trap only to be interrupted by Mrs. Morton's social friends and her relatives. The disappearing of numerous items, including jewelry, money, and Aunt Polly's menthol tube, added to the excitement and comedy of the play. Mrs. Christie's hard work paid off in the fine evening of good entertainment.

JUNIOR PLAY CAST

Wendall Jensen—Jack Norwood, Betty's fiance; Clark Conover — Grogan, a policeman; Steve Curtis — Horatius Xenophon Hooley, a tramp; Wayne Saxon — Grandad; Carol Breyfogle — Angie, the maid; Dean Hammer — Kip Shadduck, Betty's brother; Andra Lee Ewoldt — Mrs. Laura Morton; Mary Kruse — Miss Drusilla Dobbins, an old maid; Jo Ann Lasher — Della Harrington, the daughter; Deanna Goettsch — Mrs. Victoria Harrington, a society lady; Kay Conover, Betty Shadduck, Mrs. Morton's niece; Marilyn Stoneking — Jane Woods, Mrs. Morton's cousin.

Early in the spring the seniors buckled down to work to try and present the best in mystery comedies, MUMBO JUMBO. A country hotel brings together a houseful of ill-assorted guests, resulting in murder. A West Indian mystic, a blind man, two "retired" kidnappers, a chorus girl, and a native woman who speaks French, lend an air of mystery, while two college boys and two "feudin' sheriffs" supply the comedy.

AS A FRESHIE TOLD IT

The highlight for the "freshies" this year was the September 4th initiation day. The girls came dressed as Pappy Yokum and the boys as Mammy Yokum. An all-high school dance followed a day of excitement under the rule of the mighty potentates, the seniors.

Freshmen in '55 were active in many high school activities. Over 50% of the 29 in the class participated in sports, while the vocal and instrumental departments occupied the spare time of eleven members. Many had an active part in the Pep Club and the school newspaper, the Hi-Larity.

With Miss Moran and Mr. File as class sponsors and Kurt Leonard as president, we put on our first dance on January 26.

Early in the year we chose the following officers for 1954-55:

CLASS OFFICERS—Kurt Leonard, President; Merlin Jensen, Vice President; Bonnie Blackmer, Treasurer; Karen Butcher, Secretary.

THE SOPHS REPORT

This year the roll of the sophomore class stands at 39. Dick Bagenstos was elected to serve as spokesman for the group in the role of president. To be his right hand man, Rodson Ellerbusch was selected vice president. Harold Butcher was given the roll of pen-wielder or secretary, while for a careful check on the precious funds, Sally Blackmer was chosen treasurer. Most of the sophomore year is spent trying to boost the prom fund, but we still had time to stage two dances, the outstanding one being our "Snow Hop" in December.

For our part in the annual Homecoming pep rally we came up with a hilarious pantomime "The Holstein Machine." Highlighting the skit was the appearance of our own somewhat curvaceous "Miss Victory."

Sports found many sophs participating and a number of letter winners.

We owe a vote of thanks to our two faithful sponsors, Mrs. Christie and Mr. Halvorsen, for their guidance in a very successful year.

CLASS OFFICERS—Harold Butcher, Secretary; Richard Bagenstos, President; Sally Blackmer, Treasurer; Rodson Ellerbusch, Vice President.

THE JUNIOR STORY

We juniors started one of our busiest years under the direction of our sponsors, Miss Vollstedt and Mr. Piper. We elected as class officers these capable people: Stephen Curtis, president; David Bircher, vice president; Marilyn Stoneking, secretary; and Carol Breyfogle, treasurer. Dave moved to Ireton and we chose Connie Halvorsen in his place.

Early in November we presented our junior play, a comedy "Grandad Meets a Pal," under the direction of Mrs. Christie.

At the beginning of the second semester we began making plans and working on our spring junior-senior prom. To finance this biggest social event of the school year, we had sold magazines when we were freshmen and operated a concession stand at track meets when we were sophomores. After our experiences in working toward the prom, we now look forward to the time when the prom will be given in our honor.

CLASS OFFICERS—Carol Breyfogle, Treasurer; Stephen Curtis, President; Connie Halvorsen, Vice President; Marilyn Stoneking, Secretary.

The senior class . . . with Miss Stoner and Mr. Gerber as class sponsors, Craig Vollmar, President; Kenneth Kruse, Vice President; and Mary Jane Leonard, Secretary-Treasurer, paddled their way through a lively freshman initiation day closing with an all-school party that evening . . . financial aid from concessions selling at football games padded our budget . . . officers and staff members were chosen for your school annual, this Moo . . . preparations for the Moo and active participation in music, sports, and dramatics kept the seniors very busy . . . our high school days will no doubt be closed with Skip Day, a senior class play, and the usual senior class activities, climaxed by the commencement exercises on May 19, 1955.

One again the end of the school year is here. The prospect of summer vacation sends happy echoes through the resounding halls of Holstein Public School. Some will walk down these steps for the last time, never to return again. Some will be happy, some will be sad; others will be prepared to face that future squarely and honestly, knowing full well they are ready.

If these stained and stolid walls could speak, what secret would they reveal? Are they merely masses of rock and mortar, used only for a functional purpose? No, this and other buildings like it are symbols of man's thirst and quest for truth and knowledge.

Seniors, as you go out the door, down the steps, and onto the sidewalk for the last time, stop, look back and up at the silent majesty of this building. Give it a smile and a "Thank You" before you go on your way.

your autograph . . . please!

"THANK YOU"

To all persons who so graciously gave their wholehearted support to this year's annual, the staff takes this opportunity to say a most appreciative "Thanks." Without your loyal support, your time and your efforts this book would not be. So with your help we are able to present to you the 1955 MOO.
